923 Forrester NW

Oma Sandoval is a retired modern dancer. Her father was in the U.S. Diplomatic Service and her childhood was spent in many countries including Mexico, Chile and Argentina. She attended grade school at Harwood and recalled the tight control imposed by the staff.

She had owned the house at 923 Forester for a number of years, but just moved into the house in October 2013 after having it extensively renovated.

The house and its artworks.

Oma's house was built in 1912 and has had at least 5 owners. She has painted the walls with strong colors to display her extensive collection of art.

The next slide shows one of the paintings in her collection.
